INTRODUCING COM2000

DIRECTV's next-generation HD Headend Video Solution.

DIRECTV sets the industry standard for equipment features and product reliability with COM2000. This product leverages the reliable and hardened COM1000 platform, which has been the market leader since 2009.

KEY FEATURES FOR COM2000 INCLUDE:

- Energy Efficient: Requires less than 225 watts of power consumption
- 50% Cost Reduction from Previous Model: Scalable, small modular design reduces overall cost per channel by up to 50% for twice the HD channels over existing solution. Integrated EdgeQAMs reduce overall system cost and simplify the installation and maintenance
- Reliable and Adaptable: Highest density headend system that can service any size property or infrastructure
- User Friendly: Configurable on-screen, scrolling program guide

- Chassis Dimensions: 3RU (5.25"H x 17"W x 13"D)
- 6 x COM46, COM46-FLX, COM24 or COM24-FLX blade slots.
